ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS :

We wish to express our thanks to Mr. Lewis Dougherty for the help, advice, and especially the encouragement he gave to us in all phases of the planning and presentation of this yearbook.

Our thanks also goes to Mrs. Rachael Heldt, for the special lettering, to Edmunds of Hanover for the excellent photography, and to all who have assisted in a thousand and one large and small ways, too numerous to mention.

CLASS POEM

Now comes the end, of our great trend
Through our high school years.
We've come a long, long way
We'll ne're forget, nor e're regret
All the times our teachers helped
Without delay.
Forever true, to gold and blue
"Truth gives wings to strength"
Our class will always stand
What e're we do, for gold and blue
We will always think our Alma Mater grand.

Truth gives wings to strength
Our loyal classmates say
To do our best we all will strive
Honor we'll reflect back
To our school some day
To the ones who kept our spirit alive.
Through the paths of life we tread
Each one his way
Ever loyal we will be
Truth gives wings to strength
We will practice to great length
And for New Oxford we give loyalty.
